Love as a creative force

Dear friends,

We invite you to join us as we lift up this wish of Ita Wegman to 'create circles of healing all over the world' and to come to know of each other's work in the world and to stand in solidarity with each other's striving so that we may strengthen the Michael community in our time to be effective in its tasks.

UTE CRAEMER

ASSOCIAÇÃO COMUNITÁRIA MONTE AZUL

As a young girl Ute's '...soul was restless with the disparity of classes and the social injustice present in all the countries where she had been. Her call as a social agent was fulfilled when she did her first voluntary work in a slum in Parana, Brazil. She understood that one of the most important ways of transforming' the world is child education as well as training and empowerment of the adults. Every human being has its individual talents and can thus contribute to a more just society.'

Ita Wegman shared: "May all those who have the strength and courage, not only to bring the Michael-thought to manifestation in their souls but to make it living in their deeds, become true servants of Michael and bring about his victory, and thus lead mankind over the great crisis with which it is now confronted."

Our deep concern must be that an impulse for sound, healthy development shall find its way into the affairs of humanity. To disseminate love over the earth in the greatest measure possible, to promote love on the earth—that and that alone is wisdom.

Dr. Carmen Hering
The Warmth Meditation

"You detect at this point what life, which has poured into the world, actually is. Where can the source of this life be found? It can be found in what stirs the moral ideals and prompts us to say that if we allow ourselves to be filled by the light of moral ideals today, they will bear life, matter, and light and create worlds. we carry that world-creating element, and the moral ideal is the source of all that creates worlds."

~Rudolf Steiner

The inspiration for this year's theme is found in Sergei O. Prokofieff's work, Relating to Rudolf Steiner.

"The final and concluding step is taken during the Christmas Foundation Meeting at the founding of the world Society. Here we not only find the revelation of love but love itself compressed into 'creative substance', from which Rudolf Steiner then forms the supersensible Foundation Stone of Love."
